IRISH LAND COMMISSION.

This 24th day of August, 1888.

It is this day ordered that Rule No. 109, of the 12th day of December, 1883, as to the lodging of Maps at or before the hearing, shall cease to be in force on and after the 1st day of October, 1888, and instead thereof the following Rule shall take effect with respect to every hearing of an Originating Notice which shall take place on and after the said day:—

When an Originating Notice to fix a fair rent has been served, in case of a holding of which the poor law valuation shall not be under £5, it shall be the duty of the party or parties serving it to lodge with the Registrar of the Sub-Commission Court, or where the case is for hearing in the Civil Bill Court, with the Clerk of the Peace, at or before the hearing, an Ordnance Survey Map showing the boundary of the holding marked by a coloured line, with a margin of at least three inches outside the boundaries of the holding where the sheet of the Ordnance Map permits.

A circular seal with a thin black border. Inside the circle, the text "Seal of the Irish Land Commission." is written in a cursive script, arranged in three lines.
